Lots of people think Christianity is all about doing what Jesus says. But what if doing what Jesus says isn't what Jesus says to do at all? Jesus' invitation is an invitation to relationship, and it begins with a simple request: follow me. Religion says, "Change and you can join us." Jesus says, "Join us and you will change." There's a huge difference. Jesus doesn't expect.

LIBRARY LINES February is Black History Month. Mindful that 'Prejudice is the child of ignorance' (Wm. Hazlitt), consider checking out I've Got a Home in Gloryland, (Canadian author) Same Kind of Different as Me, or William Wilberforce (book and DVD). These are displayed in the Fellowship Hall.

Pastoral Care Ministry

Prayer Requests: the Gilbank family, Esther Lashambe

Need pastoral care? Contact Catherine Brown at 705-445-6941 or cjbrown1@rogers.com

All through the Bible the writers of Scripture remind us that God is love. From the creation of the world to God's relentless pursuit of us, God has shown time and time again that love is most important.

The children continue to contribute to the school breakfast program with their weekly offering. We encourage the children to bring an offering to donate to this worthwhile project.

We welcome the 3rd Collingwood Scouting Unit this morning at our 9am service, to begin "Scout-Guide Week", which ends next Sunday on "Thinking Day", a celebration of Lord Baden-Powell's birthday.

If you were unable to commit to the 2020 mission trip to the D.R. here is something that may interest you in 2021. Joel Sherbino, who spoke last November at our Missions Celebration Sunday is planning a trip to Malawi to help Presbyterian churches in Malawi work with prison inmates. No details are available yet but it will likely be two weeks in the winter of 2021 and costs will run in the area of $4000. If you think you might be interested please contact franktilley44@gmail.com.
